

JAN/FEB

Nursing

Hands-on and face-to-face, infusion nurses deliver care in homes and infusion suites. A look at essential topics from techniques and best practices to training and competencies.

Mails in January to promote conference.

MAR/APR

Infusion Journal

AI

Love it or hate it, artificial intelligence is incorporated in health care with countless new applications on the horizon. A look at practical applications in our industry as well as upstream developments that will change the face of health care delivery. Plus NHIA's Member Value Report.

Available on the floor at the Annual Conference.

MAY/JUNE

Operational Excellence and Workforce Development

Core principles for business success. See how infusion organizations approach staffing and leadership development, quality improvement, managing service lines, and much more. Also includes conference happenings and photos.

JULY/AUG

Infusion Journal

Technology

Necessity is the mother of invention. The latest in infusion tech from smart pumps and VADs to software and EMRs—and other gadgets that improve health care delivery.

SEPT/OCT

Products & Services Guide

Enteral and Parenteral Nutrition

Nutrition support is essential to health and critical for certain patient populations. Home infusion's role in patients living health, independent, lives. Issue coincides with Malnutrition Awareness Week.

NOV/DEC

Infusion Journal

Sterile Compounding

The staple of the infusion industry. Get the latest on standards, regulations, and best practices—from the home and alternate site perspectives.